General Quaker Websites

Quaker.org Created by Friends Journal as an introduction to Quakerism

fgcquaker.org Friends General Conference A national organization of unprogrammed Quakers nurtures the spiritual vitality of Quakers by providing programs and services for Friends, meetings, and seekers.

Universalistfriends.org: The Quaker Universalist Fellowship is a gathering of Friends who work to foster understanding among Quakers and people from the other diverse spiritual cultures which flourish in our globalized human community.

Pendlehill.org Pendle Hill is a Quaker retreat, study and conference center in Pennsylvania welcoming all for spirit-led learning and community.

Activist Quaker websites:

Friends Committee on National Legislation https://fcnl.org Founded in 1943 by Quakers, FCNL's nonpartisan, multi-issue advocacy connects Quaker testimonies on peace, equality, simplicity and truth with peace and social justice issues. This is a lobby group located in Washington D. C.

American Friends Service Committee https://afsc.org AFSC was founded in 1917 and continues to work for peace and justice in the US and around the world.

Friends World Committee on Consultation https://fwcc.world The primary task of FWCC is to help Friends appreciate and develop unity within the diversity of the Quaker family around the world. Quakers from all over the globe meet every seven years.

Friends Peace Teams https://friendspeaceteams.org Friends Peace Teams is a Spirit-led organization working to develop long-term relationships with communities in conflict around the world to create programs for peace building, healing and reconciliation.

Toward Right Relationship with Native Peoples https://friendspeaceteams.org/trr/ Our goal is to build relationships among Native and non-Native communities based on truth, respect, justice and our shared humanity. Developed by Paula Palmer of Boulder Friends Meeting over ten years ago. The group works toward right relationships that address more than 500 years of genocide, colonization, and forced assimilation of Native peoples.

Quaker Earthcare Witness https://quakerearthcare.org Quaker Earthcare Witness (QEW) is a net network of Quakers in North America working on Earthcare concerns. They work to inspire Spirit-led action toward ecological sustainability and environmental justice.

Quaker Journals and Books

Friends Journal https://friendsjournal.org Friends Journal's mission is to communicate Quaker experience in order to connect and deepen spiritual lives. It has historical roots in the nineteenth century. The magazine has a national circulation and is published in print 11 times per year and continuously online. It's supported by the voluntary contributions of our members. This Journal is available in our library.

Western Friend: Plain Speech and Spirit in the West https://westernfriend.org "The official publication of Pacific, North Pacific and Intermountain Yearly meetings of Quakers, building the Western Quaker community since 1929—in print, on-line, and face to face." It is published bimonthly, six time a year. This magazine is in our library and we have free copies.

Quaker Books of FGC https://quakerbooks.org Quakerbooks.org is a ministry of Friends General Conference that serves Quakers, Quaker meetings, and interested individuals who are spiritually inquisitive. As the first part of our name implies we carry books, pamphlets, ebooks, curriculum, and the like that help Friends and others live our lives as expressions of our faith, serve our values, and learn about the Quaker way past and present. You can subscribe and get messages about new books.

Pendlehill Pamphlets https://pendlehill.org "For over 90 years, Pendle Hill has expanded understanding of Quaker life and witness through the pamphlet series. Each publication arises from the writer's spiritual experience, religious concern, or special knowledge of an important contemporary theme. In 1933, the Quaker devotional writer Douglas Steere suggested that Pendle Hill start publishing short, readable "tracts for the times." The pamphlet series began the next year, and the tradition continues to this day, with over 480 pamphlets published to date!" The BFM Library has a Pendle Hill Index that is very useful in finding subjects and authors. We have a complete set available; individual pamphlets can be checked out.

Quaker Daily, Weekly and Monthly--messages, videos and newsletters

The Daily Quaker Message https://dailyquaker.com Sign up and receive a daily message that is "an invitation to enter into a closer relationship with Spirit, and to practice your own walk on the Quaker path. Daily Quaker emails have three parts: a short Quaker message to meditate on (often a quote, but sometimes a song, a poem, a piece of art, or a video), an exercise to try in your own life, and a query. This email is a powerful tool for establishing or enriching a spiritual practice."

Quakerspeak.com https://quakerspeak.com Subscribe and receive a weekly 5-minute video featuring a US Quaker speaking about some aspect of Quaker culture, life, faith and practice. Quaker Speak is a project of Friends Journal

Extra! Extra! Western Friend: https://www.westernfriend.org/extra-extra-western-friend/ Subscribe to this address to receive a free weekly newsletter featuring the news of Friends and their meeting in the western US.

Vitality: A Weekly Resource for Quaker Faith and Life, from FGC, signup at discoverquakers.org or fgcquaker.org. There are many short articles about events, meetings, and reflections on Quaker life from this umbrella Quaker organization.

Friends Journal Newsletter: https://friendsjournal.org Sign up for a weekly newsletter from Friends Journal, the foremost Quaker Journal for unprogrammed Friends.

Quaker Podcasts:

Thee Quaker https://theequaker.org A weekly Quaker podcast for spiritual seekers, lifelong Quakers and everyone in between. It explores questions of modern life and spirituality through innovative stories that explore themes of faith, conviction, and doubt. Co-hosted by Jon Watts and Georgia Sparling. Winner of the Associated Church Press Best Audio Series.

The Seed: Radical Conversation for Radial Hope https://pendlehill.org/learn/podcast/ The Seed, a project of Pendle Hill, is hosted by Dwight Dunston. The podcast invites listeners around the world to join conversations, that explore visions of the world growing up through the cracks in our broken systems.

Quakers Today https://quakerstoday.podbean.com Quakers Today features writers, musicians and thinkers who are seeking wisdom and understanding in a rapidly changing world. It is a place where you can hear people speak from the heart, grapple with faith, and share their insights that they have found along the way. It is hosted by Peterson Toscano and sponsored by Friends Journal.

Ohio Yearly Meeting Podcast https://ohioyearlymeeting.org/filterable-podcasts-list/ This is a podcast of Ohio Yearly Meeting, a collection of Conservative Quaker Meetings based primarily in Ohio. This group commits to conserve the original message of the first generation of Quakers. Their hope is that their podcasts will present the understandings of Conservative Quakerism.
